

A WEEK IN A REDLIGHT BED

Spent a week in a redlight bed trying to find a place to find my head I found God
but left him to his business yes I did.

Spent a week in a redlight bed forgetting things I wished I'd said when its far too late and the talking's pointless anyway.

Wait for me, like I've waited my whole life to find a love that I can see that won't just fall like a rose in the wind.

Spent a week without a care just falling in love with her and she would have loved me too she said but couldn't remember the way

Spent a week and everything I had but being left for broke is not so bad when you've been left before with a whole lot less than a redlight bed.

Wait for me, like I've waited my whole life to find a love that I can see won't just fall like a rose in the wind, Dance for me, dance like the moonlight on the water tonight like the love that I can see, is a love that's going to make it alright.

Spent a week in a redlight bed lookin for a place to find my head
but left him to his business yes I did..
