

LORDY LORD BLUES.

Standing with a hat at my feet singing for enough to eat Lordy Lord, you know I couldn't ask for more.
Sittin with a clock in my hands and a head that won't unwind Lordy Lord, I just can't believe anymore.

and it's enough to drive you crazy
anyway that I think about it now
oh Lordy Lord.

Most times you know it seems that I've been livin the ghost of a dream Lordy, lord I just don't know who I saw The clouds I always rode for the sunny side that showed Lordy Lord I just can't believe anymore.

and it's enough to drive you crazy
anyway that I think about it now
oh Lordy Lord.

I get up and I get low
I'm the queen of the medicine show, Lordy Lord, we're all cookin something for sure.
Lordy Lord, I just can't believe anymore.
Met a girl who heard the angels sing all she saw was psychiatric wings Oh Lordy Lord, i can't believe anymore.
and it's enough to drive you crazy
anyway that I think about it now
oh Lordy Lord.

I see demons she seeks God
I'm at evens she's at odds
Lordy Lord I just can't believe anymore
I spilt coffee all over the stove tryin to forget the one I love Lordy Lord I just can't believe anymore.
